Why recommended

Pierre-Anne has a wide experience in corporate and insurance law. She advises national and international clients on all aspects of risk management.

On a preventive basis, she assists shareholders and directors in making strategic decisions about the day-to-day business as well as regarding investments and divestments.

When the risk is threatening, Pierre-Anne is used to handle complex corporate and insurance cases in front of the Belgian courts or through arbitration proceedings.

Relevant experience

- Acting for a major insurance company in what is considered to be the largest insurance and aviation claim ever handled by Belgian Courts (destruction of four passenger aircraft)
- Advising an international group of insurance for the cover of representations and guarantees ("W&I insurance") within the framework of transactions related to the Belgian right
- Representing an international steel group in a complex arbitration procedure in relation to costs and management matters
- Acting for a German real Estate fund in international arbitration proceedings in relation to transactional issues
- Assisting a major group of the steel industry in its investments and divestments decisions
- Advising public companies regarding investments and divestments in the private sector (mainly steel, aviation and glass industry).
